

SPRINT IV: Leadership for a modern, professional and European public administration!

Today, June 29, 2026, the National Institute of Public Administration and Management (INAMP) is launching the training component of the National Public Service Leadership Program "SPRINT", the 4th edition: a stage that confirms the continuity, consolidation and institutionalization of a strategic program dedicated to the development of the new generation of leaders in the public service.

The launch event included welcome messages addressed by Veronica Butnaru, INAMP Director, Valeriu Țurcanu, Program Manager, Falckolm Cuenca, Governance Specialist at Folke Bernadotte Academy (FBA, Kingdom of Sweden), as well as by Igor Mironiuc and Tudor Mancaș, presidents of the evaluation commissions.

The training sessions are facilitated by Swedish experts Hanna Högberg, Falckolm Cuenca and Jonas Wikström, representatives of FBA, reinforcing the transformational dimension of the Programme.

The 4th edition brings together 25 young leaders from the central public administration, including its territorial structures, selected for their potential to contribute to the modernization of public administration. Through SPRINT, INAMP supports the development of leadership skills, institutional cooperation, strategic thinking and results orientation.
