

INAMP launches the Professional Development Course "Communication and Transparency in Public Administration"

The National Institute of Public Administration and Management (INAMP) announces the conduct of the professional development course dedicated to the development of institutional communication skills, decision-making transparency and strengthening the relationship between public administration and citizens.

The course aims to develop the following skills:

- Planning and managing institutional communication;
- Ensuring access to information of public interest;
- Organizing events and applying protocol rules;
- Data protection and ethics in communication.

Training is provided by:

- Natalia Efros, Strategic Communication Consultant, PAROLE Agency;
- Daniel Mazepa, Consultant in crisis communication and digital communication;
- Veronica Tomescu, Strategic Communication Manager, "MĂ IMPLIC" Project;
- Igor Sandu, Principal State Controller, National Center for the Protection of Personal Data;
- Anatol Ganea, Expert in information management.

The course emphasizes the development of practical skills necessary for effective, transparent and citizen-oriented institutional communication, contributing to the modernization of public administration.

Additional information at: ddpicff@inamp.gov.md

The annual training offer can be consulted here: <https://tinyurl.com/23x8pfc2>

